ALLEGED BICYCLE THIEF

May Be Sent to the Reform School at Boonville.

Frank Fuel, a confessed deserter from the United States army, who was arrested by Officer Wood Monday, was arraigned in police court today, facing the charge of having stolen two bicycles on separate occasions. He was held for criminal court in default of a $500 bond.

Owing to the youth of the prisoner, efforts will be made to send him to the state reform school at Boonville. Pending such a step he occupies quarters in the county jail.

A chimney sweeper was fined $50 for drunkenness and disturbing the peace. He was given an opportunity to leave town, which he did.

BROOKS, NEGRO, TO HANG

SENTENCE OF DEATH AFFIRMED BY STATE SUPREME COURT TODAY.

DATE OF EXECUTION SET FOR JUNE 30

Murdered Sydney Herndon, a Real Estate Dealer in Kansas City—Coupling Pin Was Used—Motive, Robbery.

Kansas City, Mo., May 18.—The sentence of death against Claude Brooks, a Kansas City negro, for the murder of Sydney Herndon, white, was affirmed by the state supreme court at Jefferson City today. Brooks will be hanged here June 30.

The murder of Herndon was particularly brutal. He was a real estate man. He lived alone in an apartment owned by him here. He was a cripple. Brooks worked for Herndon, and one night while the latter lay asleep the negro crushed his life out with a coupling pin. The motive was robbery.

Man Who Attempted Suicide Departed for Cincinnati.

Charles Feller, a former Missouri Pacific tinner, who one week ago last Saturday slashed his throat with a razor with suicidal intent, was discharged from the M. K. & T. railway hospital today, and, accompanied by his father, left at noon for Cincinnati, Ohio, to remain.

Feller's recovery was pronounced the quickest ever heard of in this locality. On the foregoing date he had been grieving over the death of his twin brother in the Buckeye state. He proceeded to the third floor of the Delmar hotel and slashed his throat with a razor, cutting three ugly gashes and almost completely severing the windpipe.

PLANT STARTS TOMORROW

A Kiln of 200,000 to Be on the Market Within Three Weeks.

The Mecusker $50,000 brick plant expects to begin operations tomorrow, provided a couple of pulleys are received from St. Louis and certain water pipes from Kansas City. Mr. Mecusker so stated to the Democrat-Sentinel today.

The first kiln will contain 200,000 ordinary building brick, which will be placed on the local market, delivered at $7.75 per thousand.

If everything goes well, as it is expected to, the first 200,000 will be on sale within the next three weeks.

GORE'S RESOLUTION UP

Oklahoma's Senator Wants People to Know Who's to Blame.

Washington, May 18.—Senator Gore's resolution directing the senate committee on finance to conduct an investigation into the wholesale and retail prices of commodities, was discussed today before the senate at some length. Senator Gore declared he wishes the country to know just where the responsibility for high prices rests.

YOUNG MEN ARE INVITED TO BE PRESENT

The Team Will Be Under the Charge of Charles Freeze, a High School Student—Give the Association a Boost.

There will be a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight for the purpose of organizing a team for a field meet some time this summer.

The team will be under the charge of Mr. Charles Freeze, a student of the High school. Those interested in this kind of sport are cordially invited to attend. Other particulars of the meet will be discussed by the class and the committee named as soon as decided on.

The classes in athletic work were well attended last night, and it is hoped there will be as many more on Friday night, at which time the boys will be assigned to the class of their size and age.

This work is under charge of O. D. Poundstone, an able young man for the task.

There will be services held in the building on Sunday, the 23d, at 3 p. m. Rev. E. H. Williamson, of the East Broadway Christian church, will talk on "What Is Your Life?" Every young man in the city is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The secretary, Mark Wilcoxon, will be in the building every evening from 7 to 10 o'clock, and will welcome you and give you all the information in his power. You are invited to come and make yourself at home. Hours on Sundays, 2 to 5 p. m.; week days, 12 m. to 10 p. m. Talk for the work and help when and where you can.

DRY SUNDAY FOR CONEY

Mayor McClellan Applies Blue Laws to New York's Playground.

New York, May 18.—Coney Island was hit hard yesterday by the blue laws when Mayor McClellan ordered that hereafter there shall be no shows in operation on Sunday.

The order stipulated that Sunday licenses will be refused all "common shows," which means that performances to which admission is charged, not conducted under the head of the theatrical licenses, must close the only day when the average person can take a day off. Moving picture shows are included, and practically every show on the island will be affected.

Strict orders have been issued also calling for an enforcement of the excise laws. Heretofore beer has flowed more freely at Coney on Sunday than on week days.

Judge Rickman Some Better.

Judge J. B. Rickman, who has been quite ill for weeks past, is pronounced to be improving satisfactorily at his apartments at the Pledge hotel. His eyes are being treated by Dr. S. G. Kelly, and within the next fortnight it is expected that the presiding justice will be able to be out doors.

TAKEN BACK INTO FOLD

BAPTIST DIVINE WHO HAD REFERRED GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST HIS WIFE.

HAD ALSO ACCUSED A BROTHER PASTOR

Former Had Been "Churched" on the Charge of Deserting His Wife and Bringing the Church Into Disrepute.

Evansville, Ind., May 18.—Rev. Archie Brown, a traveling minister of the Baptist church, with pastorates in Kentucky and Tennessee, who was ousted from the Ft. Branch communion on April 29, has been taken back into full membership once more.

The charges he made against his wife and Rev. H. A. Schoutz, pastor of the regular Baptist church at Ft. Branch, have been dropped.

Brown was "churched" on the charge of deserting his wife and "bringing the church into disrepute." Rev. Brown filed charges against his wife and Rev. Mr. Schoutz, but the church leaders decided to take Rev. Brown back into fellowship, and he will drop the charges against Mrs. Brown and Rev. Schoutz.

GIRLS HAD NARROW ESCAPE

REV. FR. TRACY TO OBEY

A ST. LOUIS BASEBALL PRIEST PREPARES TO BEGIN HIS NEW PASTORATE.

WILL HIE HIMSELF TO RURAL DISTRICT

Bows to the Will of Archbishop J. J. Glennon, and Will Labor in Master's Vineyard in Town of Byrnesville, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18.—Father John A. Tracy, priest and zealous baseball fan, the Father O'Flynn of St. Louis, who hesitated to accept the order of Archbishop Glennon, transferring him from Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, on Destrehan street, in North St. Louis, to the small country parish at Byrnesville, Mo., has reconsidered, and now declares he will be obedient to the mandate of his superior.

Father Tracy spent Sunday at Byrnesville, and will return there permanently this week, as soon as he can move his possessions.

"Yes, I have reconsidered and changed my decision not to accept the parish assigned to me," he said yesterday. "It is a matter of obedience to my superior, and I have decided to go down there and organize the work and do what I can."

Byrnesville is twelve miles from a railroad, and has about 150 population. Father J. R. Watson, formerly pastor of the parish, whom the archbishop transferred to Our Lady of Good Counsel, began his work here Monday.

Father Tracy's parish in North St. Louis has been a cradle of famous baseball players, boxers and sportsmen, the priest himself being one of the keenest appreciators of the national game in St. Louis.

The transfer ordering him to Byrnesville was made Sunday, May 9, and at first was declined by him. He has been in ill health for several months, but is convalescing, and expects soon to be his old self.

ARE CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Case Grows Out of Selling Stock in "Two Queens" Mines.

Kansas City, Mo., May 17.—Final arguments were made today in the trial of the Horn brothers, E. S., Frank H. and John E., Ramon P. May and S. H. Snider, promoters of the "Two Queens" group of mines in Arizona, who have been on trial in the federal court here during the past week on the charge of using the mails to defraud.

It is expected the jury will have the case late today.

Change in Zinc Ore Duties.

Washington, May 18.—In pursuance of the decision of the committee on finance to the redraft of the paragraphs of the tariff bill relating to the duties of zinc ore and pig zinc, Senator Smoot, of Utah, will in the near future introduce amendments to those schedules. Instead of making zinc ore and calamine dutiable at one cent per pound on the zinc contained therein, they are to be assessed proportionately, the duties being considerably reduced from the rate as established by the house.

RUINS WOMEN'S SHAPES

DEVOTION TO FASHION MAKES HER FIGURE REVERSE OF PLEASING.

SO SAYS HUGH CAINES, SCULPTOR, IN EAST

Boston Expert Claims Sex is Growing Away From the Grecian Figure, Which Was the Admiration of the World.

Boston, May 18.—Hugh Caines, a sculptor, declares that women's figures have been ruined by devotion to fashion.

"Women's figures are getting poorer and poorer each year," he said. "The female form is degenerating because of style."

"The women are getting farther and farther away from the Greek figure of 2,000 years ago, which they are all seeking to attain and which the whole world admires. As one instance of this, those who determine what is fashionable are trying to bring the waist line farther down."

"At present an effort is being made to get it down as low as the hips. This is all wrong, of course, for nature long ago determined that it should be just below the breast, allowing a soft, graceful line from hip to armpit."

OVER 100 MULES BURNED

Animals Were Worth, It Is Said, From $200 to $250 Each.

Kansas City, Mo., May 18.—More than 100 mules were burned to death last night in Guyton & Herrington's stables at Seventeenth and Genesee streets. Fascinated by the flames, they made no effort to save themselves, but slowly roasted to death. The building was completely destroyed.

William L. Orvis, salesman for the firm, said there were 300 in the stable. The number of incinerated animals may reach 150.

A watchman was supposed to sleep in the building. What became of him is not known.

The value of the stable, which was of brick, is estimated at $20,000. The mules were worth from $200 to $250 apiece.

A LIEN ON A CHURCH BUILDING

Work Is Still in Progress on St. Patrick Edifice, However.

A mechanic's lien for $555.36 has been filed in the office of Recorder Morey by the Bryant Supply Co. against the Rt. Rev. John J. Hogan, bishop of the Roman Catholic church for the Kansas City diocese, on St. Patrick's Catholic church, on East Fourth street in this city. C. E. Yeater represents the company.

The lien did not affect the work on the church. The task of wiring the edifice will be begun in a few days, and it is hoped to have the $35,000 edifice ready for worship in a couple of months.

HIGHER AGES FOR 35,000

Advance of 10 Per Cent Coming to Iron and Steel Workers.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 18.—Announcement is made here that 35,000 employees of iron and steel companies having headquarters here and in this vicinity, will receive an advance in wages averaging 10 per cent the first of June or the first of July.

A MAN BEATEN TO DEATH

LOUISE ARBOGAST IS CHARGED WITH THE KILLING OF HER FATHER.

CRAZED BY FORTUNE TELLER'S STORIES

The Bed on Which the Body of Father Was Found Had Been Soaked With Oil and Set on Fire—Hearing Set for May 20.

St. Paul, Minn., May 18.—Louise Arbogast, aged 22, was yesterday formally charged in police court with the murder of Louis Arbogast, her father.

The girl, who is a handsome brunette and well known among German residents of St. Paul, was committed to the county jail and her hearing was set for May 20.

It is believed her defense will be insanity and that this defense will prevail, as her demeanor for some time has indicated that she was suffering from delusions.

Investigation by the police disclosed that Louise had been visiting fortune tellers, who had told her a man would break into her home and attack her. She heard this statement so often that it became a delusion that a man was actually pursuing her.

Louis Arbogast, a wealthy meat dealer, was found dead in his bed early last Thursday morning.

His head had been crushed with an ax and the bed was soaked with kerosene oil and set on fire.

Mrs. Arbogast, the mother of Louise, was found unconscious beside her husband and was dragged from the burning bed by another daughter, Ida.

CHARGE OF BIGAMY, TOO

This Is the Latest Accusation Against Arthur Thomas.

In addition to the numerous other charges standing against Arthur Thomas, alias Arnette Patterson, Chief of Police W. H. Boulton will also place the charge of bigamy against the prisoner.

This charge will result from the finding of a marriage certificate showing that Thomas was married to the 20-year-old girl, who now occupies quarters in the county jail, facing the same charge as Thomas, and who says she is Edna Patterson, the prisoner's wife.

CHARGES AGAINST ATTORNEY

Filed in Federal Court in Tulsa Today in Town Lot Cases.

Tulsa, Ok., May 18.—Sensational allegations concerning the official conduct of Sylvester R. Rush, special assistant attorney general, and United States District Attorney Gregg, of the Northern district of Oklahoma, are made in two petitions filed in the federal court here this afternoon in connection with the Muskogee town lot fraud cases.

WAS MARKED FOR DEATH

Pioggie Puccio, an Italian, Assassinated in New York.

New York, May 18.—Marked for death, the police say, because he had been a close friend of Lieutenant Joseph Petresino, of the New York police department, who was assassinated in Palermo, Italy, Pioggie Puccio was shot and killed by an unknown assassin here today.

THE TOWN LOT FRAUD CASES

Work of Drawing Another Grand Jury Is Under Way.

Tulsa, Ok., May 18.—An effort to secure another federal grand jury of sixteen men to reinvestigate the Muskogee town lot frauds will be made here this afternoon.

As only sixteen men were summoned, it is feared the full number will not qualify today, and additional veniremen will then have to be drawn.

COMING HOME?

Back to Sedalia, the beautiful Queen City, and visit again the scenes of years gone by.

The Home Coming reunion will be held October 2, 3, 4 and 5, during the week of the Missouri state fair.

The semi-centennial of the founding of the city will be celebrated, and a grand welcome will be extended to all who gather to commemorate the event.

There are ex-Sedalians everywhere, but they will all be here again at the Home Coming.

THE QUESTION OF LIGHTING.

It is remarkably strange that there was only one bid for the city lighting offered to the city council last night, especially after the Economy Steam Heating Co. and the Sedalia Ice, Light and Fuel Co. have both so often expressed their anxiety to secure the contract.

The steam heating company has for four years been begging for an electric light and power franchise from the city, and its representatives have both openly and in conference with the city officials expressed themselves as eager to light the city at a much less rate than is now being paid, and also to furnish commercial and domestic lights far cheaper than either of the two existing companies are exacting. A franchise was all they wanted, they said, to bring about this most desirable state of affairs. They even went so far as to write the mayor, stating just what sort of a plant they proposed to erect and were also instrumental in having a particular lamp brought to the city and tested.
They seemed thoroughly in earnest in their endeavors and eager in their efforts to secure both the franchise and the contract, yet, lo! when the time for submitting bids arrived they were as silent as the proverbial clam.

What changed the spirit of their dreams can only be surmised, but Mayor Babcock's reference to the old Jacob and Esau incident may perhaps have been very apt. Anyway, only one bid was made, and that, according to those who have investigated the whole matter of the cost of production, was unreasonable and excessive.

With such a situation existing, with a raise in rates confronting us and with no relief in sight, there seems no other way than that now proposed,
the building and operating of a municipal plant.

The fight that the mayor and aldermen are making for cheaper lights is for the people and more especially the people of small means, and they should receive hearty and enthusiastic support in their patriotic endeavors.

THE NATION'S GREAT.

A visitor in Washington declared that you couldn't look down any street without seeing a "bronze soldier on a bronze critter."

The statuary of the national capital is almost entirely the product of the marital emotions aroused by the Civil war. There is a statue of Prof. Joseph Henry, of the Smithsonian grounds.
A newspaper publisher gave the city a statue of Benjamin Franklin. There is a statue of Thomas Jefferson inside the capitol. The effort of a literary woman to raise money by private subscription for a statue of Alexander Hamilton has been denounced by Senator Johnson, of North Dakota, on the ground that he was the friend of rich men.

One who should get his impressions of Americans from their capital city, says the Philadelphia Record, would suppose them to be the most warlike people on earth. He would come across scarcely any memorials of the great statesmen, the great thinkers, who have shaped the destinies of this country and elevated the thoughts of its people.

The unveiling of a statue of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in a prominent position does a little to remove this reproach. In spite of all the superfluous criticism of English writers, who refuse to recognize the American poet, unless he utters "barbaric yawp," Longfellow was an eminent poet; on the whole, our most illustrious poet, and one of the honors of English literature.

It is a pleasure to learn from a well informed English writer that whatever the Saturday Review may say, Longfellow is almost as familiar in the homes of England as Tennyson himself. He had elevation and refinement of sentiment; if not passion, at least a high degree of imagination, and he had a fine and artistic sense of beauty in language. He gave expression to the best sentiments of the human heart, and his Evangeline and Hiawatha are decidedly the most notable poems which owe their inspiration to the history of North America.

It is a creditable national event when a statue of Longfellow becomes a decoration of Connecticut avenue in Washington.

A ONE MAN PROPOSITION.

No more remarkable situation ever existed in the national legislature of a great nation than that which confronts all inquirers for information regarding the tariff bill.

It is no exaggeration to say that there is just one man out of the nearly 500 members of congress who really understands the innumerable schedules of the tariff bill, the effect of their proposed modifications and the reasons therefor. There are many,
of course, who think they understand one or more specific schedules, but ask any member for clear-cut, definite explanations of this or that schedule, the reasons for and effect of proposed increase or decrease, and insist on comprehensive answers, and sooner or later you will get the same reply:
"Ask Aldrich."

The powerful influence which this beneficial situation confers on the senator from Rhode Island, popularly known as the "high priest of protection," can easily be appreciated. When the tariff bill is finally enacted it will be the work of Nelson W. Aldrich, and it is hardly necessary to say that those special interests for which Mr.
Aldrich cherishes particular regard,
will be well protected.

Even the president himself, when consulted as to his views regarding particular schedules, is compelled to confess that he is a tyro in the matter, and while he does not say so, it is perfectly obvious that he, too, is depending very largely on the advice and judgment of the senator from Rhode Island.

HOT LUNCH AT SCHOOL.

There is a movement on foot, begun by some well-minded persons, to institute a kitchen in connection with the country schools, and, in fact, in all schools where children take their noon lunches with them from home.
It is planned that the children themselves shall attend to this kitchen, and shall cook daily there some warm dish to add to the general luncheon.

When the cooking is completed
they are to wash up the dishes, clean

The plan is a good one, and, like many of the theories of people who know nothing about a subject, looks well in print. But whoever believes that a healthy, hearty American school boy will lose three-fourths of his noon hour for the sake of having a bowl of hot soup, or a dish of stewed prunes, has another guess coming.

Not the school boy! He will content himself with a hunk of cold mince pie, a couple of doughnuts, and if he has time for it, a slice or two of bread and butter, reinforced by some cold meat. Then it is off to the ball ground for him, and "one old cat,"
"Dutch ball" or "workabout" will take care of the cold lunch which is said to be so indigestible, and for which it is argued that he needs a warm dish or two as an appetizer.

Only a few months ago President Taft said—and he meant it, too—that the interests of the masses of American consumers must be taken into consideration in revising the tariff. But he is learning already that the politicians in the senate who are manipulating the tariff in the name of the republican party (and in the interest of the trusts) have as little regard for his opinion as for the welfare of the consumers.

It seems impossible to exterminate medicine has done far more to alleviate suffering and to prolong life than the average man is aware of. It is estimated that during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the death rate throughout the civilized world ranged from 50 to perhaps 80 per 1,000. To-day in London, Berlin and New York the average lies between 17 and 19. This great decrease in yearly mortality is due principally to protection from infectious diseases now afforded to children during the first five years of life. In New York city there has been a reduction since 1873 of over 50 per cent. in the death rate of the infantile portion of the population. It is obvious that the probable lifetime has increased coincidentally with the prevention of diseases to which children of tender years are especially susceptible. Dr. Hermann

M. Biggs of the New York city health department has estimated that "the expectation of life at birth in this city in 1866 was only a little more than 25 years, while in 1903, calculated on the death rate for that year, it had almost doubled, and equaled about forty-two years." Such statistics as these are certainly striking commentaries on the advance and triumph of medical research; for it is true beyond cavil that this progress has been dependent primarily upon the knowledge gained in the laboratories, the harvest of persistent investigation.—

JOKE AS BASIS OF LAWSUIT.

Interesting Case That is Said to Be on Record in Chinese Legal Annals.

One of the most interesting cases of compensation for the death of a relative is recorded in Chinese law books. A certain Wu was set on by robbers, and his head nearly severed from his body. His friends, finding him almost dead, with his head hanging by a strip, put the head carefully back in position and applied bandages. The patient, being strong and healthy, the wound healed, and the only sign remaining after a few months was a seam around the throat.
Some nine years later Wu was sitting among friends at a banquet. Someone made a really good joke; all laughed; as for Wu, he flung back his head and simply roared.

Horror! The seam opened and Wu's head fell to the floor. All efforts to repeat the operation of the former occasion failed, and a perceptible gloom was cast over the remainder of the feast.

Wu's father, thus deprived of the future attentions of one of those whose duty it would have been to worship him after death, brought an action for heavy damages against the man who made the joke that precipitated disaster. Unfortunately, the case never went to a decision, as it was settled out of court on terms satisfactory to the plaintiff.

PROPER CARE OF THE INSANE.

City of Gheel, in Holland, Takes Care of These Unfortunates as Its Guests.

One of the most remarkable places in Europe, of which no tourist on pleasure bent ever takes notice, is the "City of the Insane," by which name Gheel, near Antwerp, has been known for generations. About 1,500 men and women, afflicted with insanity in all its forms, live there, and have a happy being as the "guests" of the inhabitants, who know by experience how to treat the unfortunate ones. In the streets, in the places of amusement, the cafes and workshops these patients may be found, and nowhere is there the remotest suggestion of restraint apparent. The board ranges from 240 to 2,400 marks a year, and, no matter how small the amount may be, the patient is always the favored member of the family. He has the first right to the most comfortable chair, and the head of the table belongs to him. He receives the most attention, and this he learns to appreciate and to endeavor to maintain by living down his illness.
Even the children know how to treat the demented people. The dangerous ones are sent to another settlement and to institutions. It is wonderful how considerate, careful and kind the simple people are toward their charges, and a peep into the community would probably terrify physicians who had never heard of and could not appreciate the good which is being done in this "City of the Insane."

HORROR OF AFRICAN NIGHT.

Traveler Describes Peculiar Conditions That Exist in Regions of the Dark Continent.

Caroline Kirkland, in her book on
"Some African Highways," writes of night in the dark continent: "There is nothing so black as an African night, and I think that it is because the earth, being a deep red, offers no reflection to the faint starlight, such as we get in other lands. Instead it wallows up what slight glow there may be, and gives to the darkness a dense, velvety quality not to be found anywhere else. Overhead the stars glare more brilliantly than in northern latitudes, but they seem to cast
no light, and the night is palpable, suffocating, appalling and filled with a nameless horror which is quite indescribable."

In a single sentence the same writer gives a forcible idea of the sleeping sickness: "While there is nothing acutely distressing about this manner of dying, nothing to equal the terrors of other vital diseases like cancer or tuberculosis, there is something peculiarly sinister in the slow, stealthy, irresistible approach of death, whose course no known remedy can stay or alter."

Of African lions Miss Kirkland writes: "As a rule it is only old lions who attack human beings. They grow too decrepit to be able to catch the more agile antelopes who are their lawful prey, so, goaded by a hunger which age cannot wither or lessen, they pounce on unwary mortals."

DAINTY SANDWICHES

FORM AN INVALUABLE HELP TO THE HOUSEWIFE.

Solve Many Problems That Arise to Plague the Busy Woman—Suggestions That May Be New to Readers.

The housewife who learns the art of making dainty sandwiches is always well fortified against the problem of what to have for an informal tea, a little supper in her own dining room after the theater, or variety in her child's lunch basket.

The bread used in making sandwiches should be close-grained and not too fresh. The kind that is baked in round tins is good, and for cheese and fish sandwiches rye and graham bread is mostly used.

All the crusts should be cut from the bread with a sharp knife, fresh butter used which has been melted, and one should avoid having the sandwiches foggy.

Made of Fish—Pieces of fried hal-but or any firm unsalted fish may be made into delicious sandwiches. Shred the fish, season and mix thoroughly with mayonnaise dressing. Spread on toasted rye bread, garnish with a bit of watercress and serve.

An Indian Sandwich—Cut the white meat of a cooked chicken in small pieces. Take the same quantity of boiled ham and four fresh anchovies and mince. Mix two cups of veloute sauce with one dessertspoonful of curry powder thinned with a little water. Stir over the fire until it becomes a thick sauce. Add the chicken and the ham and the juice of half a lemon. Cut slices of bread and fry them in butter until a light brown.
Spread on the mixture and cover the sandwiches, serving while hot.

Of Nuts and Cheese—Use the meats of English walnuts, pecans and almonds. Cut into fine pieces and mix with a cream cheese. Spread the paste on toasted crackers and serve with olives.

Made of Peanuts—Peanuts mixed with mayonnaise dressing are popular, and chopped olives and small crisp cucumber pickles seasoned with capers and mixed with mayonnaise are also good.

Dates and figs chopped very fine and mixed with lemon juice may be spread on thin slices of bread and sprinkled with finely chopped nuts. An odd mixture for sandwiches is Oriental preserved ginger softened with a little cream. All kinds of candied fruits may also be used for filling.

That's where the square deal comes in.

But Mi-o-na is really a stomach up-

state that after they had lost all hope Mi-o-na cured.

FERVENT LOVE LETTERS

ALEXANDER DUNCAN MAILED A TOTAL OF 1,546 TO MISS ALICE DOWNES.

AFTERWARDS HE MARRIED ANOTHER GIRL

Disappointed Girl Sued for $25,000 for Breach of Promise and Irish Jury Rendered Verdict for $4,280

The faithfulness of a lover, described by counsel "as a remarkable man—almost a genius," was the cause of proceedings in the Dublin court, which ended in a verdict of $4,280 for breach of promise of marriage, writes a Dublin, Ireland, correspondent.

The plaintiff was Miss Alice Josephine Downes, daughter of the proprietress of the Westbrook hotel, Dublin, and she claimed no smaller a sum than $25,000. The man was Alexander Duncan, of Oliverton, Montserrat, West Indies, described as an employe of the Montserrat Co., who was neither present nor represented in court.

"The defendant," observed Mr. T.
M. Healy, K. C. M. P., on behalf of the lady, "wrote 1546 love letters. He could not pass a letter box without posting a letter to the plaintiff."

"Never have I seen such a batch of correspondence as there is in this case—not an ordinary, vulgar kind of letter, but letters of passion and ardor, the like of which I have never read. He was not content with writing to the young lady herself, but he wrote to her mother, to her sister and her brother."

Counsel said Mr. Duncan, who was a native of Liverpool, was a remarkable man, almost a genius. He had taken service in West Africa, and after six years was home for a year's holiday. He came to Dublin and stayed at the plaintiff's mother's hotel. He was a man of wealth and frequently entertained the proprietress of the hotel with tales of African life.

One evening, after he had been on a shopping expedition with Miss Downes, he asked her if she were engaged. She laughed and said, "What's that to you?"

"Well," he said, "I should like very much to be allowed to pay you some attention." "You must go and see my mother about that," she replied.

"And so," remarked counsel, "Mr.
Duncan, who began practically by sweethearting the mother, at once went to see Mrs. Downes and told her that the real secret of his long visit to Dublin—the real attraction—was her daughter, Miss Alice."

Miss Downes raised difficulties with regard to religion, defendant being a Presbyterian and plaintiff a Roman Catholic, and also about the climate of West Africa. Duncan said that religion should be no barrier and added that he hoped to get another appointment in the West Indies. Ultimately,
he was accepted as suitor.

"That night," continued Mr. Healy,
"this gentleman sat down in the hotel and wrote his first love letter to the young lady. In the course of the following six months he wrote to the plaintiff, not merely dally from train and ship, but almost from his bed, letters, telegrams and postcards."

In the following November he said for Montserrat, where he got a good appointment.

The first name of the lady, said counsel, was Alice, but the defendant asked to be allowed to address her as Josephine, as he was fond of the name, and he pointed out that in Scotland the name Alice was rather common. In one of his letters from Liverpool he wrote:

"My Darling Josephine: Many
thanks for you dear, sweet letter received this morning. Mother brought it up to my bedroom, together with the eggs and milk. You have no idea how glad I am to get it. but was sorry you cried yourself to sleep on Wednesday night. You must not cry, darling. I do not like to think of you being so downhearted. I miss you terribly, darling, and don't know how I will manage to exist without you. I am very tired of being in Liverpool, and, oh, so lonely. Last night I was in bed at 8:30 and lay awake, thinking of you, darling, and wondering what you were doing. I could not even enjoy a smoke, a very unusual occurrence for me."

A dramatic incident which took place at Bray was described by counsel. Defendant had taken plaintiff there on a coaching trip. He asked her to swear to be his wife, and she said she was ready to swear. "Well," he said, "let us come into your church and vow each other before God to be husband and wife at the altar." She consented and there in the church at Bray he got down upon his knees and before the altar councelled her to pledge herself that she would never marry any other man but him, that he would never marry any other woman but her.

He told her that he was so much struck by her kindness and beauty,

and the attraction of her religion that now voluntarily he would desert the religion of his fathers and join the Catholic church. Some time afterward he was baptized at Marlborough Street cathedral.

Counsel went on to point out that defendant had evidently been attracted by the daughter of the Hon. Mr.
Driver, managing director of the Montserrat Co., whom he subsequently married.

He had written to Mrs. Downes, acknowledging a letter which he alleged he had received from her, announcing that her daughter would shortly be married. Mrs. Downes replied at once to say that she had written no such letter, and denounced it as a forgery. Inquiries subsequently revealed the fact of defendant's own marriage.

LOGICAL ECZEMA CURE ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease, the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is not a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc.
This will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin.

Dr. R. A. Folkerts, of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success in treating patients:

"There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely. The first application is a balm and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this oil of wintergreen compound is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent.

AS TO THE "SPOILED" CHILD.

He May Really Be Receiving the Best of Training.

Often, writes Woods Hutchinson, in the Success Magazine, the spoiled child is the one really best trained for life. Real life, that is, not the sham travesty upon it so carefully played in the nursery and the schoolroom and termed "education." The difference between a spoiled child and a well-behaved one is chiefly a matter of frankness of expression. The spoiled child says right out just what he happens to think and feel, and you hear and are pained by his expressions of skepticism, of resentment, even of rebellion.
Nine times out of ten the "model" child feels exactly the same sentiments—but refrains from expressing them. When the spoiled child has expressed himself—it may be even im-pertinently or rebelliously—the murder is all out, the subject is fairly on the carpet, and you can argue the case with him on its merits, or if it be beyond his grasp, assert your authority and ask him to trust your superior experience, which he usually will, nine cases out of ten, if he is appealed to in this way. In any case, you know the worst that is in him and can govern yourself accordingly. Your model child may submit in silence, without discussion or remonstrance, but you may depend upon it that he will discuss the question on its merits with the nurse, or the cook, or the hired man, or the bad boy in the next street;

and that, whatever feeling of resentment or injustice he may smother in his own little interior, so far as expressing them toward you is concerned, he will pass on with interest to his puppy, his kitten, or his younger brothers and sisters, or playmates.

tion. During the early weeks of the

Not for Her!
"With one wave of my wand," says the fairy, "I can make you grow young again."
"Excuse me," replies the woman, "if I decline your kind offer. If you can bring youth to me at my present age, all right; but I positively refuse to travel back through pyrography, the first stage of bridge, the habit back, the straight front, balloon sleeves and all the rest of the fads I can remember.—Life."

Didn't Mean Anything.
"One can't help knowing," said a dandy, "when one is good looking. Why, I got off at a small station the other day in the country, and I must confess that I attracted a great deal of attention."
"It doesn't mean anything," said his friend. "Why, when I got out of the Grand Central station I met a crowd of men who yell 'Hansom! Hansom!' at the top of their lungs."

Giving Work to All.
Miss Eastman, secretary of the New York branch of the American Association for labor legislation, says that somehow a plan must be devised that will give men the right to work. Surely, she says, it is an unintelligent society which will let men who want to work starve, beg or steal. Surely this country is prosperous enough to afford an eight-hour day six days in the week for everybody.

Criminologists Interested.
Countess Boos Farrar, a niece of Archdeacon Farrar, has secured 75 acres at Spring Valley, N. She gives all her time to the care of those sick and in want.

In a Pearl Factory.

The pale, bent workmen were, most of them, drilling costly pearls, but here a man in kid gloves performed the operation of skinning, the operation of removing a pearl's outer, discolored coat so as to give it again its original luster, and by the window another man shook industriously three pearls in a bottle.

"It is a secret of the trade, of the pearl driller's trade," he said, "this bottle-shaking. You see, in pearl drilling, a drill point often breaks off in a pearl, and to get it out may take a whole day's work—that is, if you don't know the secret."

He looked closely at the bottom of the glass bottle, and then, continuing his shaking, he resumed:

"But if you put your pearl in a bottle and shake it up, the drill point in a few minutes will fall out of itself. Look! There's another out already. The third'll come soon now."

Hallway of Carved Sicilian Carls.

A young woman in New York with a purse long enough to satisfy her craving for artistic expression in her home has constructed a hallway and stairs out of carved Sicilian carls. These carls, as every globe trotter knows, are painted in the most vivid colors, and frequently show fine examples of wood carving. The hallway is paneled with the sides, fronts and tailboards of carls, and the carvings include cherubs' heads, angels and saints. Spokes are used for baluster spindles, and shafts have been spliced for the stair railing. The effect is somewhat barbaric, but has been admired by many artists. The young woman is proud of her conception and execution, and flatters herself on the probability that she owns the only exhibit of the kind in the world.

BOARDER WAS JEALOUS

WOMAN, HOLDING BABY IN HER ARMS, BEATEN TO DEATH IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

HUSBAND IN YARD AS HIS WIFE IS SLAIN

Murderer Suicided After Slaying the Woman—Was Angered Because He Would Have to Seek Another Home.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18.—With her 8-months-old baby clasped in her arms, Mrs. Anna Negren was beaten to death, while her husband, Vasil Negren, was trying to enter through a locked door and assist her.

Her assailant, Bruno Dobref, after crushing her skull, drank carbolio acid and walked three blocks away, dying in a cigar store ten minutes later. His victim died a half hour afterwards, at the City hospital.

The tragedy occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Negren home, No. 3523 North Ninth street.

The child, uninjured, is in charge of nurses at the hospital.

Dobref had been a boarder in the Negren home. Negren was employed in a lumber yard at Second and Deschamps streets. Dobref had been an employee of the Mallinckrodt Chemical Works, but had been out of work six months.

Negren decided to move to East St. Louis and thus get rid of his unemployed boarder. The van came for the furniture and Negren assisted the negro driver in carrying out the effects. Dobref remained upstairs with Negren's wife, making suggestions about the moving.

When Negren and the negro had carried out a large portion of the furniture and turned to go upstairs again, they found the door locked.

While they went to the rear steps to gain entrance, Dobref opened the front door and ran down the street. Negren entered the dining room to find his wife, her skull crushed, lying on the floor with the baby still in her arms.

Beside her were the fragments of a heavy pine scantling, two inches thick, broken in three pieces.

Dobref had drunk the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolio acid while standing beside the prostrate woman.

He was found dead by the police a few minutes later in a cigar store owned by August Roepke, at Fourteenth and Salisbury streets. He had entered the store, asked for some paper and evidently intended to write something. He died at a table before making a mark on the paper.

Negren told a friend Sunday night he was going to move to East St. Louis to get away from the boarder, who remained at home while he was away at work.

The police theory is that Dobref attempted to kill the woman through jealousy.

DESERVED RAISE IN SALARY.

Theatrical Advance Agent Had Neat Scheme That Brought Him Popularity.

The value of the ability to know faces and the names that go with them is a recognizable asset among salesmen and all people who have dealings with a large number of persons. An advance agent of a theatrical concern, finding that he was not gifted that way, hit upon a new scheme for helping matters along. Immediately after leaving a town he card-indexed every man with whom he came in contact—reporters, hotel men, managers and merchants. He wrote a short description of their facial appearance, together with some incident which occurred while he was with them. The next year, while on the train, he would study the cards relating to the people of the next town he was to visit. The result was that whenever he met a man he saw the year before he would say something like this:

"Why, hello, Jackson! The last time I saw you we were still laughing over that fellow who slipped on the ice with a pail of milk in his hands. I have thought of it a thousand times since."

A raise in salary greeted this advance agent the next year, for he had every town his way long before the show reached it.

FAILED TO MAKE THE SALE.

Sidewalk Merchant Was Badly in Need of Lesson to Curb Tendency to Freshness.

Carey Johnson Ludlam, the southern philologist, in the course of a lecture on "Neologisms" in Charleston, said: "Another neologism is 'salesmanship.' The advertising columns of the magazines have for several months abounded in this word. Schools of 'salesmanship,' books on 'salesmanship,' secrets of 'salesmanship'—why, one reads of nothing else."

The aged scholar smiled. "And speaking of schools of salesmanship," he said, "I hope that the salesman who accosted me on my way here this evening will take in one of them an eight or nine years' course. I'm sure he needs it. This salesman, a shabby young man, laid his hand on my arm and said:

"Say, friend, lemme sell ye a box of this here patent cement."

"I shook off his filthy paw."

"Cement!" I sneered, annoyed at his familiarity. "What do I want with cement?"

"Why," cried the man, in apparent surprise, "ain't ye broke? Ye look it."

Portrait Pleased Wagner.

Sir Hubert von Herkomer, the celebrated English artist, recently described in an address his experience in painting the portrait of Richard Wagner without a sitting. Wagner in 1877 was introducing his music to English audiences, and he permitted the young artist to be with him at his house, see him day by day, and watch him. When Wagner was asked when he intended to sit, he replied, "He sees me all the time." That went on for a month. Then the artist started one Friday on the portrait, worked at it all day at white heat, slept badly all night, and worked again all day Saturday. By the evening it was finished, and the next day he took the portrait, glazed and framed, to Wagner. Then came a change over the great musician. He was delighted.

Collar Button Defender.

The collar button has been libeled. Since it first came into being it has provided the writers of jokes for the comic papers with a large share of their material. That it possessed a remarkable tendency toward losing itself has been accepted almost as an axiom.

Facts have come to light which show that the collar button has been maligned. A man in the employ of the Burlington railroad has worn one collar button for 28 years. It has stuck by him without any undue precautions against loss and has never shown a tendency to wander.

This man says he has always treated his collar button kindly, has never sworn at it nor blamed it for his own faults. His idea is that if mankind accords due respect to the collar button it will reciprocate.

WINTER LIFE OF THE ESKIMO.

With a Night Three Months Long the People Simply Hibernated.

A writer in the London Magazine describes a visit he paid last year to

The winter "iglous," or snow houses, are much more pretentious erections than the summer "tupeks," or tents of skins, and are made to resist the extreme cold of the Arctic winter, and to serve as a comfortable hibernating place for the months during which the sun never rises above the horizon. The foundation is usually made of stones, upon which cleverly shaped blocks of snow are built up to form a dome-shaped hut. After these have frozen together the interior is lined with skins.

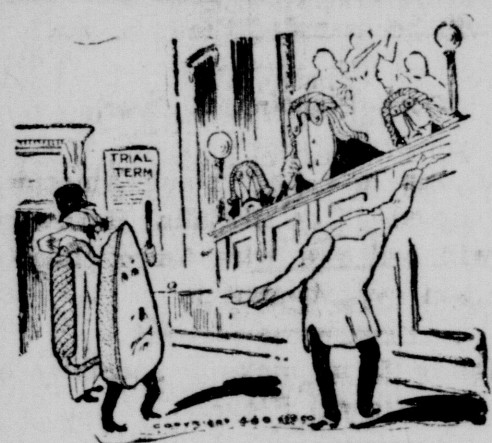

A long tunnel is then constructed to serve as a porch, this being built very low and narrow, necessitating an entrance being made on hands and knees, closing the first skin door before opening the second, so as to admit as little of the icy atmosphere as possible.

Heat is supplied by an "ikomar," or oil stove, made from a kind of soapstone in the shape of an oval saucer. It is filled with seal or walrus oil, never sweet-smelling, and usually very rank.

In this floats the wick, which is made of moss. This stove not only serves for heating, but also for cooking purposes, though I believe the greater part of their food is eaten raw, or, at any rate, not more than warmed through.

I saw one man eat quite four pounds of raw bear-meat, which was frozen as hard as a rock, only waiting for a second for it to half thaw in his capacious mouth.

At the back of the "igloo," at the end remote from the door, is a raised bench covered with skins, which serves as the sleeping chamber. Here the whole family turn in, taking off every vestige of clothing, finding quite sufficient warmth in the thick bear and deer skins which serve as blankets.

Girl Could Tell Where Were Mineral and Oil Underground.

Galveston, Tex., May 18.—The payment of $150,000 to Miss Stella Josephine Feiler, of Harris county, brought to light the fact that the young woman possesses some remarkable power by which she locates oil and mineral lands.

The $150,000 was paid by ten land owners upon whose land two flowing oil wells have been produced after Miss Feiler had located the oil not far from the Umbie field in Harris county.

It is now known she has accumulated a fund of over $500,000 and is erecting an orphan asylum in Beaumont with the money she received for locating oil and sulphur lands.

Three years before the Corsicana field was discovered Miss Feiler informed two land owners of a wealth of oil under their lands, but they laughed at her. One later realized a fortune and generously remembered Miss Feiler. The other sold his land for $10 an acre before the oil was found.

House with a Wrong Tablet.

A curious example of the mistakes of history comes from Paris. For more than half a century a house of the Quai Conti has borne on the front a tablet with this inscription: "Historic Napoleon Bonaparte, officer of artillery, on leaving the school of Brienne, lived at this house in the fifth story." Then follows that the tablet was placed in position by his majesty Napoleon III. on October 14, 1858.

After this great length of time it has been discovered that Napoleon never lived in the house, so the tablet has been removed. Only another instance of how our most cherished beliefs are shattered.

How to Shake Hands.

Lady Violet Greville is trying to make a warm handclasp and hearty handshake popular. She is very glad, she says, that the "elbow shake" is going out of fashion. Who invented the elbow shake, she says, she does not know, but it is senseless, devoid of grace, with no charm or meaning. It used to be part of a boy's or girl's education to learn the graceful curve of the elbow that was necessary when hands were shaken.

Varying Impressions.

"The days are growing longer," said the man who keeps a lookout for the first robin. "I don't notice any difference," said Mr. Sirius Barker; "they seem, as usual, to be getting longer if you count from one pay day to the next, and shorter if you figure the time between rent days."

Another Suggestion.

"What's the reason your boy doesn't like to work on a farm? He's fond of outdoor exercise." "I'm working on that problem now," answered Farmer Cornfloss. "If these uplift experts could make arrangements to have plowin' records printed in the sportin' news, I think Josh could be persuaded to take an interest."

WIVES AS TRUST BUSTERS

Two Refuse to Sign Deeds, and Prevent $550,000 Merger.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 18.—The wives of two master bakers assumed the role of real trust busters yesterday, and refused to sign deeds for the merger of their properties into a bakers' combine.

The company was to have been capitalized at $550,000. There was to have been $200,000 in preferred stock and the rest in common stock, and the properties were to have been bonded for $150,000.

Five plants were to have been run the same as they are now, and present owners were to have been managers of their respective plants. Each manager was to hold an office in the company.

Max Oschley and G. Coblenz, of Kansas City, and H. T. Westerman, of St. Louis, were the promoters. It looked fine on paper and the deal seemed in a fair way to go through. Then came an unexpected obstacle. The wives called a halt. As one of them said:

"I don't propose that my husband shall work for any one else. He is his own boss now and he shall stay so, so long as I have anything to say about it."

FOR HIS SLIPPERY WAYS

While Wisconsin Man Was Away From Home Wife Got Divorce.

Kenosha, Wis., May 18.—After being missing from his home here for more than two years, George W. Fay, a former prominent business man of this city, slipped back into the city last Sunday night, and after spending a few hours with friends and relatives, slipped away as mysteriously as he came.

Fay left home on March 12, 1907, to go to Zion City, to attend the funeral of John Alexander Dowie, and that was the last seen or heard of him in Kenosha until last Saturday night. Many of his friends believed him dead.

At the time of leaving he had one of the most prosperous stores in the city, and after waiting for months for his return the wife had the business placed in the hands of a receiver and sold and the proceeds were given to the family.

Mrs. Fay later secured a legal separation. Some time after his disappearance a report was brought to Kenosha that Fay was in Canada. In her bill for separation the wife made serious charges against Fay.

HIS CALL A BUSINESS ONE.

Poor Old Beggar Was Not on This Particular Occasion Looking for Charity.

The prosperous wholesale grocery dealer had sold out his business preparatory to departing for the west to live. He was reflecting, the next morning, on the prospect of getting a good price for his house, which the day before he had advertised for sale, when the doorbell jingled merrily.

"Sir," said the maid, putting her head in at the library door a moment later, "it's the old beggar from the corner near your store, sir."

"Old Jo, the beggar, eh?" rejoined the retired business man, taking from his pocket a coin. "I presume the wretched old fellow missed my customary contribution this morning and is come for it. Here, give him this dollar."

The maid went away with the money and again returned. "I gave the dollar, sir," said she, "and he seemed very thankful for it; but he says he'd like to speak a moment with you on business, sir."

"What business can that old beggar have with me?"

"He says that if you can bring the price of this house down to $20,000 cash, he'd buy it, sir!"—Judge's Library.

SEVERAL KINDS OF ACCENTS.

Observant New Yorker Noted the Different Pronunciations of Singers in the Choir.

"In so cosmopolitan a city as this," began a man who was on his way from a choral service at one of the New York churches, "I fancy a choir master's duties are doubly hard."

"How so?" asked his companion, who, though less observing, had sat through the same service. "Because of the various pronunciations of the members of the choir. Today I heard distinctly four different methods of pronouncing the word mercy. It took me some time to figure them all out, but I happened to know the line 'Lord, have mercy upon us,' etc. There were some who said 'moicy,' and they seemed to be in the majority; others sang 'mercy' with all the brr to the r that they could get in; still there was some one, a soprano who pronounced it as if it were spelled with a double e, 'meercy,' and some one gave it a French finish and said 'mercy.' Now I don't doubt that choir master has worked over those people in his effort to get a uniform pronunciation, but so far, at least to my perhaps too critical ear, he has failed to do so."

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 146.

Sullivan, Mo., a little village, recently awoke to the fact that as a city they could not send their money away to the brewers, even if they did get 10 per cent of it back as license, so they decided to quit it and they voted their saloons out. The first year they built 50 new residences, or 25 residences for each saloon. Sedalia has 30 saloons to make prosperity, and did we, as a city, build last year as many new houses as the little hamlet of Sullivan did? We should have built 750 new residences to have kept pace with a little "dead, try town." Did we do it?

They without saloons built 50 new residences; we with 35 saloons, built how many—just count them and see. We think because the brewers give us back 10 per cent for license that we are getting rich fast.

You just stop and think, we are 50 years old as a city, and we are in debt $200,000. When will we ever get out of debt? We are in debt; the brewers and wholesalers have plenty of money. THE DRYS.

LOCAL LIGHTING PLANT

TO BE OWNED BY CITY AND CONTROLLED BY COMMISSION IS NOW PROPOSED.

MAY SPEND $150,000 FOR THAT PURPOSE

A Special Election to Vote Upon the Proposition—What the City Council Did at Monday Night's Meeting.

The city council at Monday night's session adopted a resolution providing for a municipal lighting plant for Sedalia and authorizing the mayor of Sedalia to call a special election to vote on a $150,000 bond issue to secure the necessary sum to promote the enterprise.

The resolution provides for a board of managers for the plant, similar to the board of park commissioners, cemetery board and library board.

This step was taken when it was learned that only one bid had been offered for furnishing street lights for the city.

Two weeks ago the city council advertised for bids for furnishing street lights. At that time the Sedalia Light & Traction company, the Sedalia Ice, Light & Fuel company and the Economy Steam Heating company were anxious for the franchise. Each desired offering a bid.

Last night was the date set for the opening of bids, but the Light & Traction company was the only bidder, that corporation's bid being $67.50 per year for each street light.

J. H. Sullivan, the Second ward alderman, offered a motion that the one bid be rejected, as it, in his estimation, was exorbitant.

A. W. McKenzie, chairman of that particular committee, in a lengthy talk, presented data showing that other cities secure street and commercial lights at a much cheaper rate than Sedalia. He, too, was opposed to accepting the bid, likewise nearly every other member of the council.

Chairman McKenzie then asked what was the reason the other two lighting companies had not offered bids for lighting the city, as several weeks ago each seemed over-zealous to secure the franchise.

C. C. Kelly, representing the Sedalia Ice, Light & Fuel company, said he could speak for his company and explain the situation exactly. He said he knew that the council would not accept the Light & Traction company's bid of $67.50. In fact, he knew it would not be accepted if it was $10 lower, and for that reason, and at that figure, his company did not think there would be any money in securing the contract.

A. L. Pringle, the Third ward alderman, coincided with the views of Chairman McKenzie, saying the bid was too high.

Mayor Babcock then referred to the interest shown by the Economy Steam Heating company several weeks ago, and in fact for four years past, during which time they have been endeavoring to secure the franchise. He said for four years the heating company had been trying hard to get the contract for lighting the city; that the same company had talked about erecting a large lighting plant in Sedalia and contemplated the expenditure of a large sum of money. Concluding, Mayor Babcock said that last Friday he received information from the management of the company, wherein the management said that owing to financial troubles the company would be unable to put in a lighting plant in Sedalia.

"It looks like they have sold your birthright for a mess of potash," was the statement made by Mayor Babcock in concluding his talk about the Heating company.

On roll call the bid was rejected by unanimous vote of the council.

A resolution was then introduced providing for steps toward building a municipal lighting plant and it was carried, every councilman voting in its favor.

Alderman Baker's request to advertise for bids for doing several painting jobs on city buildings was granted.

The following ordinances were passed:

Repealing ordinance No. 996.

For changing the grade of Third street, between Park and Beacon avenues.

For curb lines on the east and west side of Park avenue, between Seventh street and Broadway.

For sidewalks on the east side of Washington avenue, from St. Louis street to the Missouri Pacific right-of-way.

The following resolutions were adopted:

To curb East Third street, in front of lot No. 11, of block No. 2.

To curb the south side of Third street, between Engineer and Hancock avenues.

To curb the north side of Third street, near Mill avenue.

Condemning sidewalks on the north side of Pacific street, near Montebau avenue.

Condemning sidewalks on the north side of Pacific street, near Osage avenue.

For sidewalks on the north side of Fourteenth street, between Summit and Ingram avenues.

Condemning sidewalks on the north and south sides of Fifth street, between Lamine and Washington avenues.

Other ordinances passed were for sidewalks on the north side of Second street, between Harrison and Grand avenues, and for sidewalks on the east side of Washington avenue, near St. Louis street.

The council ratified Mayor Babcock's appointments of members of

THE HUMAN HOG

Of all nuisances the human hog is the most exasperating. His enormous conceit, shallowness, supercilious, dogmatic and overbearing attitude towards those over whom he may have the authority of strength marks him as a beast in clothes. When not brutal, his condescending civility is often harder to bear than open insult.

The lowest order of this human hog makes himself conspicuous by loud talking, crowding and incivility to the weak in street cars and other public places. His conversation takes no heed of the religious or political convictions of his fellow man; this swaggering bully does not know that one man's liberty ends at the point where that of his neighbor begins, and that summed up, good manners are only and always, consideration of, and respect for, the rights of others.

The human hog is not always the impolite person, but the selfish man who, in his dealings with his fellows, fails back on the legal principle caveat emptor—or let the other fellow look out for himself. Many a man does things under this pretense who would get very angry if he were called a knave and rogue, but the thief usually is more honest, for he makes no pretensions to virtue.

This human hog is fond of "first come first served," which is his weak excuse to hide behind a paper while a woman and baby hang to a street car strap; the coward's warrant for jumping into the boat to let women and children go down with the wrecked ship, and the plea of the predatory rich when they attempt to monopolize the earth.

The trouble with the human hog is that he has no imagination to enable him to enter into and comprehend the feelings of others, or properly to appreciate how inhuman he really is. He is sometimes born this way, but more often it is an outgrowth of selfishness.

The consolation to the rest of the world is that the only class denounced by the Bible constantly, unsparringly and invariably, into which class the modern human hog may be placed, were the Pharisees, and it is joy to believe that in the world to come, at least, they will get what is coming to them.

the city fire department, with Henry Willis as chief. Will Schneider and Will Amick were also ratified, succeeding J. T. Kaler and Harry Wagner, resigned.

All properly audited bills were allowed, including that of Circuit Clerk C. W. Daugherty for the city's costs in two cases, thrown out of court, which cases resulted in the circuit clerk levying on the city's "willapuss wallapuss" some time ago.

At 11 o'clock council adjourned.

Bilious People Try It Free

Do not ignore the "little disorders" of the system. The liver, for example, is a particularly useful little organ, but must be active to be of any use. When it is active it creates gastric juices that help to make digestion perfect, and then you are well. When it is not active it becomes what is known as "torpid," and promptly produces biliousness.

There is no better cure for biliousness or any of the symptoms of liver trouble than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful laxative tonic of which so much praise is heard. It is pleasant to take (unlike pills and powders and such things) and acts very gently, moving the bowels without griping, toning the stomach and arousing the liver to activity, thus scientifically curing such conditions as biliousness, torpid liver, foul breath, sallow or pimply complexion, sick headache, constipation, loss of appetite, indigestion, stomach nervousness, etc., all of which are due to a slow liver.

Mack Clark, of Earlinton, Ky., suffered for five years from biliousness and cured himself with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Noah B. Hatfield, of Zalma, Mo., found it the best medicine in the world for his biliousness.

You can buy a 50-cent or $1 bottle of any druggist, for they all sell it. You can buy it with the understanding that if it fails to cure you the money will be refunded. This remedy is guaranteed. However, if you would rather try it without expense before buying, send your name to the doctor and a free sample bottle will be sent to your home. Use it and if you find the remedy helps you, buy a regular bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. We will rest on the verdict of what this sample does.

O'BRIEN-JOHNSON FIGHT

WILL MEET IN A 6-ROUND BOUT IN PHILADELPHIA TOMORROW NIGHT.

FANS EXPECT IT TO BE REAL MARATHON

Jeffries Now in Condition to Battle for Heavyweight Crown, According to Critics—Time-ly Fight Gossip.

There is just one big pugilistic encounter on the fight calendar this week. There is not a great deal of interest in this bout, because of the fact that the principals are not well liked, especially one of them, but those who are longing for the time when Jim Jeffries will step back through the ropes and meet Jack Johnson are very anxious to see what this fighting negro champion can do against Jack O'Brien, famous Philadelphia fight faker. They will meet in a six-round bout in the Quaker City tomorrow night, May 19.

When this battle was first placed in the mitt schedule critics all over the country began to scoff at it, because O'Brien was mixed up in the affair, and that makes it look bad. Cartoonists on the largest papers of the country and the London Mail pictured these men in a marathon race, with the best runner the winner. They are right, says the sporting editor of the Kansas City Journal. O'Brien has been known to openly fake more fights than any other mitt artist in the world, and every time his name appears on the bill fans immediately become afraid they are sure to be humiliated. How O'Brien pulls off these faking stunts in rapid succession in Philadelphia and gets away with them is a mystery, unless it is because of his popularity there, he owning the most prominent fight club in the Quaker City.

O'Brien and Johnson are of the same calibre and this is the reason fans have believed the six-round affair scheduled for Wednesday night would be a real marathon. While Johnson has been on the level in the last few fights he has had, his reputation before those were pulled off was as shady as his color. Johnson will undoubtedly be bringing up the rear in the bout Wednesday night. He will not run from O'Brien, because there is no need of it, but O'Brien will probably do some lively stepping.

Goat Getting Affair.

One of the characteristics of this bout will be the gush handed back and forth by the fighters. Both O'Brien and Johnson believe in the old Young Corbett gag to get the opponent's goat and then beat him. They will be kidding each other throughout the mill, and if they have time to do anything except kidd and jump around the ring possibly keeping inside the ropes, they may fight a little.

It is a certainty that Johnson and O'Brien have been training hard for the battle, and each man says, as every fighter does before a bout, that he is confident of victory. The betting favors Johnson. Johnson's statement regarding his chances in this mill are as follows:

"Don't worry about me. I'll take care of myself and give O'Brien one of the worst beatings he ever received in a short bout. Take it from me, I am in grand shape, although reports have been going around that I have been lax in my training and have been dissipating a great deal. I do not let anyone tell me how to train, and I have conditioned myself for this fight by hard, conscientious work, and am satisfied that I will be able to carry the milling to O'Brien through the six rounds.

"I can't say that I will put him away, but that does not mean that I am not going to try. I am going after him from the tap of the bell and will show the public that I am every bit as scientific a fighter as he is. I am anxious to make a clean-cut win over O'Brien and convince some people in this country that I am entitled to be called the heavyweight champion of the world. I'll beat O'Brien and I'll beat him badly, and when I return to this country I'll give Stanley Ketchel the same dose."

Still After Jeffries.

Jack Johnson is not contented to book fights with O'Brien, Ketchel and others of the same class, and a few weeks at English theaters at fat salaries, but is still chucking the dailies full of dope about meeting Jeffries. He is still full of that con about Jeffries being afraid of him, and Jeffries is silent. He says:

"Jeffries is afraid to fight me and he has shown this by not even acknowledging my challenges and making any pretense of covering my forfeit money. What right has he got to reclaim the heavyweight title? He has relinquished it to Tommy Burns, and I beat Burns in Australia. Then, why am I not entitled to the championship? He simply has reclaimed the title to get advertisement for his theatrical work, and before he gets a clear claim to it he will have to fight and beat Jack Johnson. I have given him plenty of opportunities to talk fight terms here. I am going away without even hearing a word from him. I'll make him fight when I return, even if I have to battle for nothing. Yes, I am going to fight Stanley Ketchel in the fall before Jimmy Coffroth's Colma club, but under no conditions am I going to fight Sam Langford in England. I do not intend to engage in a fight until I return to America."

There is a whole lot better prospect of Jeffries fighting Johnson now than there was before he invaded Chicago with his Burger-Jeffries sparring exhibition on the stage. For awhile in the east there was little said about Jeffries and the press finally fell to the fact that playing the band at the door of the theater for the purpose of shoveling gold into the California ranchman's pockets was a foolish stunt.

Then the news about Jeffries and his adventures dwindled and Jeffries soon came west, where he expects to get all kinds of free bill posting. He got it right off the reel in Chicago, but western dopsters are wiser. They are giving the big retired champion the kind of advertising that will force him to fight or show the public that he does not care to.

The very first night this big fistic disher showed in Chicago a bunch of good fight critics, including Jack Curley, Packey McFarland, Harry Gilmore, Lou Houseman and Jimmy Callahan, went to the theater to see him perform. They stated, unanimously, that Jeffries could get into condition to fight within two months, and some thought that it would take but thirty days' training to put him in shape to trim Jack Johnson to a finish.

This kind of talk out of those who are able to judge the condition of the big man will make him tell the public that he will fight or make him quit talking about it. There is no question but what Jeffries can fight and can whip Johnson, but he wants to get a few more thousands out of the box office before he gets ready to do what he should do for his many admirers—bring the heavyweight crown back to the white race.

Battling Nelson is on the coast and working hard for his battle May 29 with "Fighting" Dick Hyland. Nelson will not say much about the McFarland affair until the Hyland fight, but still sticks to his ultimatum to force McFarland to wait until September for his crack at the lightweight title. McFarland can wait all right but while he is doing so Nelson will not become any more popular with the followers of the roped arena by sidestepping him.

"Bat," who has many followers, claims he will dispose of Hyland inside of ten rounds. He may turn that kind of a trick but if he does he will surprise a good many of those coast boys who watch the mill through the ropes.

Another Burns Lemon.

So old Ruby Bob Fitzsimmons, the daddy of them all, is figuring on fighting Tommy Burns in Australia. Well, it will be a nice little piece of change for Bob but it seems a shame to push an old worn out war horse back into the roped arena for a battle of this kind. Fitzsimmons will not be able to whip Burns if the bout is on the level, but if he is in shape he will be able to give a better account of himself than he did in his last mill in Philadelphia, where Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight, punished him unmercifully and beat him down in a couple of rounds. Fitzsimmons gave a pitiful exhibition of the mitt game and it was then stated by the leading authorities on pugilism in the east that "Ruby Bob's" fighting days were over long before that encounter.

We all know how Johnson punished Tommy Burns about the ring

Welcome Words To Women

If, you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest square-deal medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills. The makers of

for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. Is this not a significant fact worthy of careful consideration?

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines sold by druggists for their peculiar weaknesses and ailments because it is

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is not anything like advertised secret compounds or patent medicines.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments and carefully adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside bottle-wrapper.

It's foolish—often dangerous to be over-persuaded into accepting a secret nostrum in place of this time-proven medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CASE OF H. C. PIERCE

It Has Been Postponed at Austin, Texas, Until October 11.

Austin, Texas, May 18.—Pleading that the defendant had just been arrested on a new indictment, similar to but correcting inaccuracies of an indictment returned by a Travis county grand jury November 10, 1906, District Attorney James R. He asked that the case be re-set for trial on October 11. This was done.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Sedalia People Know How to Save It.

Many Sedalia people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all disease and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Sedalia citizen's recommendation: Mrs. Julia Crawford, 302 East Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills. For months I was troubled with kidney complaint and at times was laid up. I had severe pains in the kidneys, and the secretions from these organs became irregular and contained a sediment. A cold always aggravated my suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Bar's drug store, went to the seat of my trouble and banished the attack. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement."

50,000 KENTUCKY RATS SLAIN

Nicholas County Takes a Day Off as a Pied Piper of Hamelin.

Frankfort, Ky., May 18.—Thousands of rats were slaughtered in Nicholas county yesterday as a result of the war waged upon them by every man, woman and child in the county, with strength enough to act. Armed with clubs, accompanied by dogs, imported into the county especially for the hunt, the slayers attacked rat dens in every section of the county.

It is estimated that 50,000 rats were killed altogether. Each one was buried to prevent a pestilence, so many were killed. The third Monday in May is set apart by the people of Nicholas county as the annual day for killing rats.

MUSTN'T MISS VISITING TOM.

Cheerful Prospect Ahead for Traveler, No Matter Which Course He Elected to Follow.

A New Englander, traveling on foot through the southern mountains, studying the people, asked a man whom he met to direct him to a certain cabin at which he had been advised to stay overnight. "Going that?" said the man. "Well, Tom's a first-rater, take him just right, but he's mighty queer."

"What do you mean?" asked the traveler.

"Well, it's like this," and the man looked at the stranger in a calm, impersonal way. "He'll be setting outside, most probably, and he'll see you coming; he'll take a good look at you, and if you don't suit him, he may set the dog on you."

"If he don't, and you get to talking with him, and say anything he don't just like, he throw you down and tromp on you. But if you're too careful in your talk, on the other hand, he's liable to take you for a spy and use his gun fast and listen to explanations afterward."

"But it's no use trying to get by without stopping," concluded the man, with evident relish of the prospect he was opening up to the stranger. "If you was to undertake that, 't would be all up with you, for he'd think you was proud and biggity."

"If you want to come out of the mountain whole, don't go past Tom's cabin without stopping, whatever you do!"—Youth's Companion.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected, the inflammation is set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruptions or disease. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

300 BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

ABDUL HAMID'S HAREM CAPTURED BY THE SOLDIERS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

SULTAN'S FAVORITES HELD BY MILITARY

Assault on Palace With Subsequent Taking of Imprisoned Women Shows the Lavish Way in Which Sultan Lived.

The downfall of Abdul Hamid has been accompanied by the dispersal of the most remarkable seraglio in the history of the world, writes a London correspondent. Three hundred beautiful women, who were Abdul Hamid's temporary spouses, thousands of pretty slave girls and an even greater number of stalwart eunuchs, suddenly found themselves at the mercy of the soldiers attacking the palace. Panic reigned among the lovely inmates of the harem. They knew the character of their own countrymen too well not to realize what their fate would be once their lord and master had lost his power. The English newspaper correspondents have referred but little to this painful aspect of the fall of Yildiz Kiosk, but the Continental press has devoted considerable space to accounts of the terrible scenes which occurred.

Every one of the sultan's favorites had been jealously guarded from the prying eyes of strangers from the moment she entered the harem. A Cullinan diamond could not be more closely watched over than a female member of Abdul Hamid's establishment. For any unauthorized person to be detected in proximity to the apartments of the fair ones was equivalent to the signing of his death warrant. In this respect the sultan set an example which his subjects have strictly followed. Cases are on record of venturesome Europeans surreptitiously visiting Constantinople harems. They have been caught and there has been only one alternative to death—the diabolical cruelty of the Turk and the enormity of the offense in his eyes have made it essential that the alternative shall be the severest punishment that can be devised. It is well known that more than one prominent Englishman has had to choose between this and a watery grave in the Bosphorus.

As a voluptuary Abdul Hamid has a reputation unrivaled in history. He professed to be a person who practiced exemplary moderation in all kinds of pleasure. Certainly he was something of an ascetic as far as eating and drinking were concerned, but he placed few restrictions on other inclinations. At Yildiz Kiosk he lived amid the most luxurious surroundings, had magnificent establishments for each of his four legal wives, and, in the seclusion of a series of 300 gorgeous apartments kept fully 300 beautiful companions, who remained during his pleasure, and were periodically "weeded out" to make room for new arrivals. There was no difficulty as to the sources of supply. It was realized that there was no surer path to Abdul Hamid's favor than to present him with a pretty slave girl for his seraglio. Each inmate was under the strict supervision of several eunuchs, and could command the services of half a dozen girl attendants. Such a huge household was, of course, an enormous expense. Yildiz Kiosk in recent years had a population of over 12,000 persons, and the cost of providing for them was fully $20,000,000 per annum.

The women of the establishment were allowed no free communication with the outside world. Any letters received or sent by them were scrutinized by officials who acted as palace censors. If they took exercise in the grounds they were heavily veiled, and surrounded by attendants who were ready to report immediately any act not strictly in accord with the routine of the establishment. The system of domestic espionage was carried to the length of permitting no locked doors in the women's private apartments, so that, neither sleeping nor waking, could they ever feel secure from prying eyes.

It was into this unique abode of the sultan that a horde of soldiers, flushed with the triumph of their plans and eager to seize the fruits of victory, burst. For several days the inmates had been enduring the horrors of anticipation. They had been living without gas, water and electric light, and toward the end of the siege, without provisions, all supplies having been intercepted. The majority of them are said to have had nothing to eat except beeroof leaves. In their weak, famished state, they were in a condition bordering on collapse when the troops entered the apartments of the harem. The eunuchs made no show of resistance and were at once seized and placed under a strong guard. Then their captors turned their attention to the women, whose terrified screams woke the echoes of the great palace. Pale and trembling they shrank into the corners of the rooms and tried to hide behind the curtain hangings. But there was no place that could afford them more than temporary concealment. The correspondents refrain from detailed reference to the plight of these poor creatures, but there seems no room for doubt that the officers failed to exercise proper restraint over many of their men.

The hundreds of women of the harem and their female attendants who were left by the sultan when he was taken to Salonika are stated to have been distributed among their captors. It is reported that they have been sent off in detachments to the residences of the victors who secured

CHILD'S DREADFUL SKIN TROUBLES

Had Sixty Boils when but Six Months Old—Was Annually Attacked by a Humor—It Looked Red Like a Scald and Spread Over Half Her Head—Both Troubles are Cured.

NO PRAISE TOO HIGH FOR THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little Vivian was about six months old, her papa had a boil on his forehead. At that time the child was covered with prickly heat and I suppose in scratching it, her own head became infected, for it broke out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her of them entirely. Then, between the toes. Being afraid to use salt rheum, I spoke to our doctor. He gave me a powder which dried it up, but soon after it broke out behind her ears. They cracked half way around and the humor spread up on to her head until, on several occasions, it was nearly half covered. The humor looked like a scald, very red with a sticky, clear fluid coming from it. This occurred every year. I think it was toward the spring. I always bathed it with warm water and Cuticura Soap and applied Cuticura Ointment which never failed to heal it up. The last time it broke out was when she was six years old. It became so bad that I was discouraged. Then I procured a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, which soon cleared it out of her blood. I continued the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment with the Resolvent until she was perfectly well. She is now about eight years old and has never been troubled in the last two years. We also find Cuticura Resolvent a good spring medicine and we are just giving the children Cuticura Resolvent Pills as a tonic. We do not think any one can praise Cuticura Remedies too highly. Mrs. M. A. Schwerin, 674 Spring Wells Ave., Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24, 1908."

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach. A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.
